

liligo.com launches a brand new iPad app

For the past few years, mobile users have been able to take liligo.com's technology with them wherever they go. On top of the applications for iPhone and Android, liligo.com also has an app for iPad with a new interface and brand new functions: hotel search, car hire search as well as the usual flight search.

Liligo for iPad features:

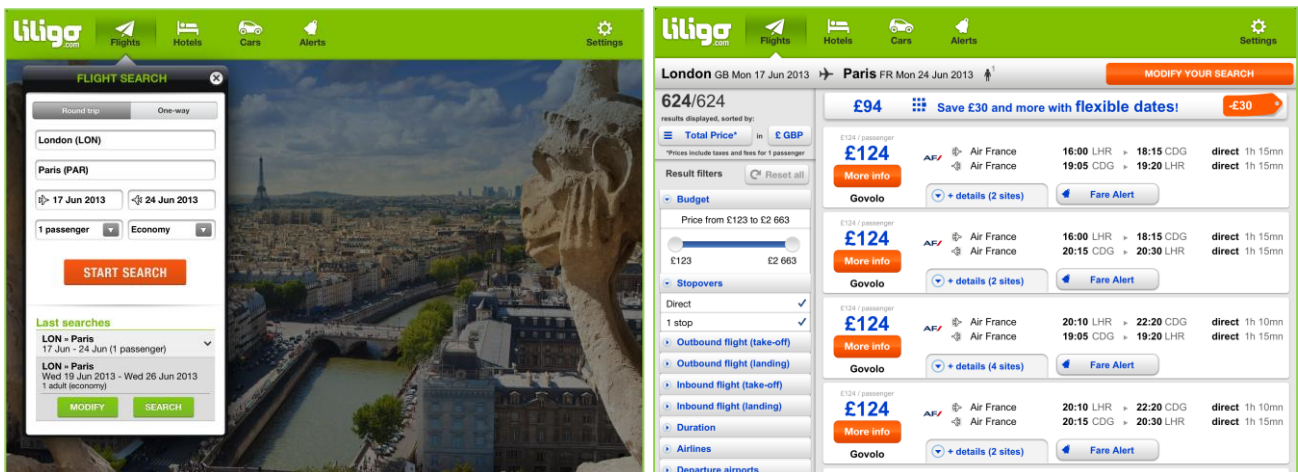

- Design and user experience have been totally revamped for better app navigation and comfort
- Now possible to plan your trip from A to Z: flights, hotels and car hires
- From now on iPad and iPhone have the same app and features
- Available in 7 languages

New features for flight searches

Like the previous versions of the app, the user can search for flights from among hundreds of travel sites, of which 70 are low cost. Prices are displayed with all taxes and fees included (airport taxes, booking fees, additional services...).

Search for multi-destination flights: the new application gives users maximum flexibility, allowing them to search for return flights, one-way or multi-destination trips.

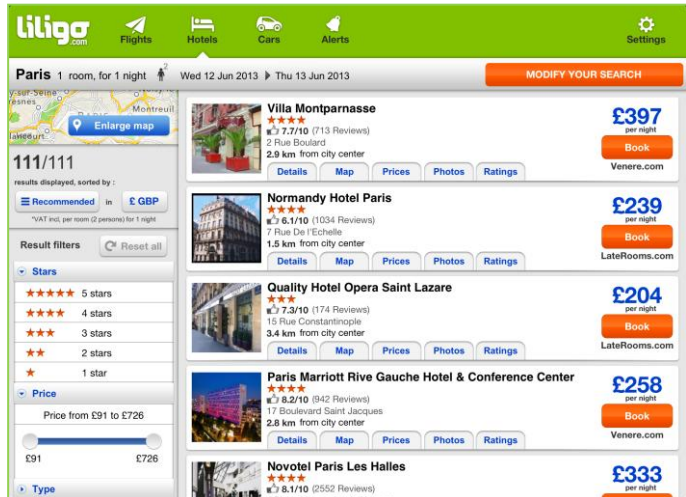

Custom fare alerts: flight fare alerts can be created directly from the home screen or while making a search. They help users follow the prices trends so they can book when their flight tickets when the price is right. Users can choose how often they receive alerts: daily, weekly or when the price changes.

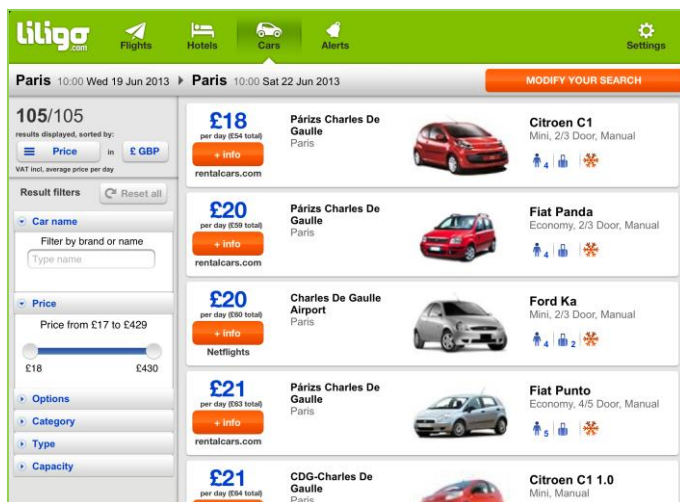

And now the hotel search feature...

For the first time on liligo for iPad it's possible to search for a hotel stay from among 300,000 establishments around the world, see your results displayed on a map, sort and filter results by price, distance from city centre, guest ratings and reviews, number of stars, hotel type, etc. For each hotel, it's possible to compare prices between suppliers.

- 300,000 establishments around the world
- Hotels displayed on a map
- Multiple filters: star ratings, distance from city centre...

...and don't forget the rental cars!

Users exploring liligo for iPad will discover they can now search for car hires from dozens of rental agencies plus filter and sort their search results by model, passenger capacity, price, car features and more.

- Dozens of car hire agencies to choose from (Hertz, Avis, Europcar, etc.)
- Filters: price, car features, passengers...
